TenCate appointments in Asia

The Executive Board of Royal Ten Cate (TenCate) has appointed Mister Wong Nim Ki as Executive Managing Director for the China and Hong Kong markets per 15 November 2011, and Mister Lam Chun Lung as Executive Commercial Director for the China and Hong Kong markets per 29 November 2011. The purpose of both appointments is to strengthen the presence of TenCate in the China and Hong Kong markets and to boost its sales in China.

Mr Wong (1952) has worked over 35 years in operations control management in different business sectors and six major (multinational) corporations in Hong Kong. Until recently Mr Wong was chief executive officer at the China based Wingway Textile Group. In his new position as Executive Managing Director for TenCate in China and Hong Kong, Mr Wong will focus on strategic, business development, commercial and operational issues.

Mr Lam (1959) has worked over 20 years as marketing, sales and product management professional for several reputable (multinational) companies in textiles and petrochemical industries across the Asia Pacific region. Until recently Mr Lam worked as director sales & marketing at Super Fine Global. In his new position as Executive Commercial Director for TenCate in China and Hong Kong, Mr Lam will concentrate on the implementation of business development, sales, marketing and promotional issues.
